August 25, 1941.

Mr. Ed. Gottlieb,
509 Market St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Gottlieb:

I am writing to ask you to please send balls over for the game Sunday, as I have just discovered we are out of them. I imagine we will also have to look to you to supply them for the game in Atlantic City Wednesday. If by any chance your supply is exhausted, please get them from Horace Partridge and send them over any way.

I am planning to play until Sept. 14th, and would like to know if you could use us in Phila any day or night from the 8th to the 13th. We haven't been over there this half at all.

Please let me know if you will take care of the balls.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ